2016 - 2017 CALL FOR PAPERS

For its 5th session, the Wine Law in Context International Seminar still aims to bring together internationally recognized specialists in the sector of wine & spirits law but also wine economics, sociology, ethnology or political science. The key point of the Seminar is based on the idea that wine law can and should be apprehended and analyzed through a historic, geographic, economic and even political context. For each session, a paper is presented either in English or in French. Priority is given to unpublished papers under process. The call for papers is also open to junior scholars, mainly PhD students. Sponsorship of the Wine & Law Program allows covering accommodation and travel expenses for authors and/or discussants, within the limits of The Program's financial possibilities. The most authoritative papers are published online in The Wine Law in Context Working Papers (<http://wine-law.org/wp.php>), according to the editorial rules set by the Program. Selection Process: For the academic year 2015-2016, a brief description (500 words) of the paper should be submitted together with the author's resume before September 20, 2016 at seminar@wine-law.org.
